

BENEFITS FOR SELF-EMPLOYED WORKERS REGULATED IN RDL 30/2020, OF SEPTEMBER 29, ON SOCIAL MEASURES IN DEFENSE OF EMPLOYMENT.

1.- Self-employed workers forced to suspend their activity

Those self-employed persons forced to suspend their activity due to the resolution of the competent authority will be able to access. The requirements to fulfill are the following:

- Be affiliated and registered with the RETA or REM, at least 30 calendar days before the resolution of the cessation of activity.
- Be up to date with the payment of Social Security contributions.

The amount of this benefit corresponds to 50% of the minimum contribution base of the corresponding activity. It will be 70% for those who are recognized as a large family. In the case of two members of the same family unit, 40% will correspond to each one.

The request will be submitted during the 15 days following the entry into force of the agreement or resolution of the closure of the activity, if it is made from the 16th, the right to the benefit will begin that same day.

This benefit is incompatible with work for others, when their remuneration exceeds € 1,187.5 (1.25 SMI), with self-employment, with the receipt of income from society and with other benefits from social security, except those that are compatible.

The benefit will be received for full months and will end on the last day of the month in which the suspension ends.

2.- Extraordinary benefit for self-employed workers who do not have the right to cease their activity compatible with self-employment, nor the end of ordinary activity.

hcn

Av. Diagonal
nº 472, 5è 2a
08006 Barcelona
T +34 93 208 09 40

mad

Alfonso XII
nº 62, 2º
28014 Madrid
T +34 91 904 19 20

They must meet the following requirements:

- Be affiliated and registered with the RETA or REM before April 1, 2020.
- Be up to date with the payment of Social Security contributions.
- Not have the absence of twelve months to access the ordinary provision of cessation of activity, or the extraordinary.
- Not having income from this activity in the last quarter of 2020 exceeding € 950.
- Reduction in revenue for the fourth quarter of 2020 of at least 50% compared to the first quarter of the same year.

The amount of this benefit corresponds to 50% of the minimum contribution base of the corresponding activity. In the case of two members of the same family unit, 40% will correspond to each one.

The benefit will be charged from October 1, 2020 if it occurs between the 1st and 15th of the same month, if it is done outside of this period, it will be charged from the first day of the following month, and until January 31, 2021 as the deadline. During the period of receipt of the benefit, the worker will be exonerated from the obligation to contribute.

This benefit is incompatible with work for others, when their remuneration exceeds € 1,187.5 (1.25 SMI), with self-employment, with the receipt of income from society and with other benefits from social security, except those that are compatible.

3- Extension of the ordinary benefit due to cessation of activity.

It allows the compatibility of the autonomous activity and the perception of the benefit for cessation of the activity.

Beneficiaries who have received this benefit until September 30 can access, provided that they maintain the requirements to access the benefit, during the fourth quarter of 2020, that is, that they prove a reduction in the invoicing of the fourth quarter of at least the 75% compared to the same period in 2019, as well as not having obtained net returns higher than € 5,818.75, not being able to exceed the monthly calculation.

The amount of the benefit is 70% of the regulatory base, resulting from the average of the last twelve months, applying the IPREM limits.

The benefit will be charged from October 1, 2020 if it is presented between the 1st and 15th of the same month, if it is done outside this period, it will be charged from the day after the request, and until January 31, 2021 as the deadline.

The benefit is compatible with self-employment and paid employment, provided that the income from the activity is less than € 2,090 (2.2 SMI), and employment cannot exceed € 1,187.5. In this case, the amount of the benefit will be 50%.

Regarding Social Security contributions, the self-employed continues to pay them and it will be the mutual that will return to the worker the amount corresponding to the contribution for common contingencies, together with the benefit.

4.- Ordinary Benefit for cessation of activity.

Planned for those who could not benefit from the benefit in the third quarter, for not meeting the requirements, but they do meet them now.

They must have been beneficiaries of the extraordinary benefit until June 30, 2020 and have covered the minimum grace period of twelve months.

The other requirements will be the same as for those requesting the extension.

5.- Seasonal self-employed.

hcn

Av. Diagonal
nº 472, 5è 2a
08006 Barcelona
T +34 93 208 09 40

mad

Alfonso XII
nº 62, 2º
28014 Madrid
T +34 91 904 19 20

These are workers, who, in the last two years have worked during the months of June to December, being registered for at least four months a year, provided that the registration as an employee does not exceed 120 days in the years 2018 and 2019.

Requirements:

- Not having been registered or carried out activity from March 1 to May 31, 2020.
- Not having received Social Security benefits during the months of January to June 2020, except those that are compatible.
- Not having obtained an income exceeding € 23,275
- Be up to date with the payment of Social Security contributions.

The benefit will be charged from October 1, 2020 if it is presented between the 1st and 15th of the same month, if it is done outside this period, it will be charged from the day after the request, and until January 31, 2021 as the deadline. During this period, the worker will be exonerated from the obligation to contribute.

The amount of this benefit corresponds to 70% of the minimum contribution base of the corresponding activity.

hcn

Av. Diagonal
nº 472, 5è 2a
08006 Barcelona
T +34 93 208 09 40

mad

Alfonso XII
nº 62, 2º
28014 Madrid
T +34 91 904 19 20